

CHICAGO LABOR RECLAIMS

MAY DAY

Annual May Day event at Haymarket Square

Labor unions and workers will once again gather to celebrate the annual reclaiming May Day at Haymarket Square. This year's plaque will be dedicated by the AFL-CIO. A national AFL-CIO representative will speak about labor's fight to pass the Employee Free Choice Act. The President of United Electrical Workers Local 1110 will talk about the local factory occupation of Republic Windows and how they inspired workers all over the world to stand up and save jobs.

The Haymarket Monument is a symbol of International Labor Solidarity and the right of all working people to have a voice in their job, their economy and their government.

Please come to the Haymarket Monument
Friday, May 1
4:00PM
Randolph St. and
DesPlaines Ave.,
Chicago

Be a part of history—Make history—Change history
Come to the Haymarket

Co-sponsored by the Illinois Labor History Society and the Chicago Federation of Labor

